RE: Withdrawal of Agreement on Travel Agency Identification in IATA's PaxIS and DDS Products

Dear Mr. Popovich,

With reference to your communication of 16 March 2012, AGENCY NAME would like to withdraw its consent from publishing AGENCY NAME's identity (agency code, office locations) and sales data in IATA's PaxIS and DDS products.

Therefore, we would like to ask you to ensure that the identity of AGENCY NAME is masked in IATA's PaxIS and DDS products as of 1 August 2013, in accordance with Article 7(3) of EC Regulation 80/2009 on Computerised Reservation Systems that requires the consent of Travel Agents for publishing their identification data in market intelligence products.

We look forward to receiving confirmation of this withdrawal letter.
